Application Deadline: 5pm Tuesday 28th May 2024

ABOUT NOTTINGHAM PLAYHOUSE

Nottingham Playhouse is dedicated to making bold and thrilling theatre in the heart of Nottingham.

A central part of cultural life in the city and driven by a belief that theatre should be accessible to everyone, Nottingham Playhouse's rich programme of work, which sits alongside its ambitious and inclusive outreach and community work, has earned it the reputation of being one of the leading regional theatres in the UK.

Nottingham Playhouse's 2024 programming opened with a thrilling and critically acclaimed adaptation of Philip K. Dick's Minority Report. This was followed by a gripping, intimate revival of The Children and an exploration of sisterhood and creative expression in new commission Liberation Squares. The spring season concludes with Punch by James Graham, a fascinating new play about toxic masculinity and the incredible power of forgiveness.

This summer, The Trials gives a voice to the young people who have no choice but to live with the consequences of climate change. Nottingham Playhouse's highly anticipated, brand-new production of Dear Evan Hansen premieres in September and marks the first time that the Broadway and West End phenomenon will tour the UK and Ireland. Following that, a co-production with Headlong, Leeds Playhouse and Lyric Hammersmith of the ground-breaking play which 'changed American theatre forever' (New York Times) - Lorraine Hansberry's classic A Raisin in the Sun. Opening in November, this is a family drama full of humour and heart, powerfully relevant in a world divided by inequality.

Looking ahead to Christmas, Nottingham Playhouse's legendary pantomime reaches new heights with Jack and the Beanstalk. Younger children can look forward to a brand-new retelling of The Ugly Duckling, for which the writer, composer and director are all being selected through an open call-out.

Nottingham Playhouse Trust Ltd relies on ticket sales for 70% of its income and continues to fundraise through its Curtain Up appeal.
